USE OF ORCID IN THE FUNDING CYCLE

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE ORBIT FUNDER WORKING GROUP

ORCID'S VISION IS A WORLD WHERE ALL WHO PARTICIPATE IN RESEARCH, SCHOLARSHIP, AND INNOVATION ARE UNIQUELY IDENTIFIED AND CONNECTED TO THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS AND AFFILIATIONS ACROSS TIME, DISCIPLINES, AND BORDERS.

FUNDING WORKFLOW PAIN POINTS

The ORCID Funder Working Group recommends using ORCID to:

- Reduce the reporting burden. Use information from ORCID records to fill forms and to track research results over time
- Improve data quality. Add authoritative information about funding to ORCID records
- Automate information-sharing. Enable systems and organizations to easily share information about researchers and their funding

ORCID IN FUNDING WORKFLOWS

Funders should use ORCID and other persistent identifiers to:

- Support researchers. Use data from ORCID records to auto-fill forms for your researchers and add information about funding to their records
- Track and evaluate research results. Maintain links with grantees - past, present, and future - to track the impact of your funding over time
- Streamline reporting. Enable easy information-sharing across systems within and between research organizations

ORCID IN PUBLISHING WORKFLOWS

Publishers should use ORCID and other persistent identifiers to:

- Help your researchers. Add information about their publications, other contributions, and service to their ORCID records so they can share it with their funders
- Collect information about funding from your authors' ORCID records, so that it can be included in their publications
- Support funder compliance and improve transparency by including identifiers (ORCID iDs, grant DOIs, organization IDs) in publication metadata

ORCID FOR RESEARCHERS

Researchers should use your ORCID iD to:

- Connect with your research. Ensure that you and your research are discoverable and that you get recognition you deserve
- Save time. Auto-fill forms when submitting a grant application or manuscript, and get your ORCID record automatically updated by your funders and publishers
- Share your ORCID iD. Enable grant information in your ORCID record to be included in the metadata for your publications
